Daylight Saving Time Begins-March 8
Remember to turn your clocks ahead

On Saturday, March 21, 2015, Deadwood's ongoing "Third Saturday" live music, dinner, and dance series welcomes back Clown Dancer with TR Kelley, Randy Hamme and David Helvey. Brian and Anya's band Clown Dancer play 60's and 70's Rock, ... Blues, R and B, Funk, and Originals. Come have some fun socializing and dancing! Please join us at the Deadwood Community Center's comfortable setting and floating wooden dance floor, with a dinner for sale (which benefits the Community Center facility) starting at 6:30 and the music starting at 7:30. This is a family friendly event, all are welcome. A sliding scale donation at the door is appreciated for the band. The Community Center is located 4.3 miles up Deadwood Creek Road, (off HWY 36 just past the Deadwood Store, Bar, and Grill). Call 541-964-5031 for more information. We love to keep the music flowing out in the hinterlands..... come join us!!!

DEADWOOD NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH

There were no reportable incidences in February 2015.

To report incidences, call Maryanne @ 964-3099
or Marina @ 964-3497

International Women's Day is not about asserting the superiority of one gender over the other. It is not about petty quarrels about who gets to do the dishes after dinner. The United Nations instituted International Women's Day to commemorate the contribution of women in the socio-political sphere as well as in global peace and security.

The light Family would like to thank the Deadwood Community for their generous support, thoughts and prayers, with the passing of CORBIE light. A family and friends memorial will be held this Summer.

Thank you Very Much

Hey Folks

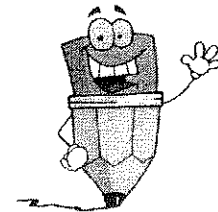

Write to our neighbor Steve Causey aka John Forbis. A few kind words through the mail will make his day and keep him going ("letters keep me alive"). He is in a real hell-hole and suffering from his bad hip.

Many thanks.

The next board meeting will be held Thursday, March 12th, from 7-9pm. This is an open meeting, and all are welcome to attend. Call Tchanan at 5031 for info on location and directions.

Martha Graham, American Choreographer

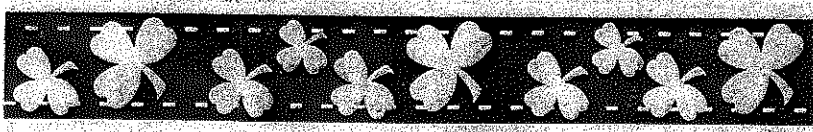

Nobody cares if you can't dance well. Just get up and dance. Great dancers are not great because of their technique, they are great because of their passion.

Nancy Pelosi

Women are leaders everywhere you look -- from the CEO who runs a Fortune 500 company to the housewife who raises her children and heads her household. Our country was built by strong women and we will continue to break down walls and defy stereotypes.

Barbara Bush

Somewhere out in this audience may even be someone who will one day follow in my footsteps, and preside over the White House as the President's spouse. I wish him well!

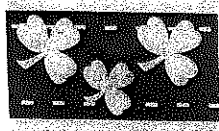

ST. PATRICK AND THE FIRST ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARADE

Saint Patrick, who lived during the fifth century, is the patron saint and national apostle of Ireland. Born in Roman Britain, he was kidnapped and brought to Ireland as a slave at the age of 16. He later escaped, but returned to Ireland and was credited with bringing Christianity to its people. In the centuries following Patrick's death (believed to have been on March 17, 461), the mythology surrounding his life became ever more ingrained in the Irish culture: Perhaps the most well known legend is that he explained the Holy Trinity (Father, Son and Holy Spirit) using the three leaves of a native Irish clover, the shamrock.

Since around the ninth or 10th century, people in Ireland have been observing the Roman Catholic feast day of St. Patrick on March 17. Interestingly, however, the first parade held to honor St. Patrick's Day took place not in Ireland but in the United States. On March 17, 1762, Irish soldiers serving in the English military marched through New York City. Along with their music, the parade helped the soldiers reconnect with their Irish roots, as well as with fellow Irishmen serving in the English army.

DID YOU KNOW?

More than 100 St. Patrick's Day parades are held across the United States; New York City and Boston are home to the largest celebrations.

Ariana Saraha's debut studio album releases for the public on March 22nd, but for her beloved Deadwoodians, come to an exclusive listening and dance party weeks before! The evening will include an intimate short performance and Q&A with Ariana. Bring snacks to share, and send Ariana off on her spring tour with your love! ♥

for those of you who know Karen Stingle,

Friday, March 6th, 7pm
 At the Deadwood Community Center.
 $5-10 suggested donation, or free with purchase of a CD

Ariana is her daughter**

Though primarily of Celtic heritage, just enough Roma (gypsy) blood runs through counterculture-born Ariana Saraha to really stir things up. With influences spanning Celtic and Eastern Europe, Spain, the Middle East, India, and even a little hard rock, Ariana's debut album, "Maiden of Midnight," is a journey along ancient and new gypsy trails, and does its job of guiding us "home." Co-produced by Dream-Pop songstress Tina Malia, Mideast-music guru Jesse Manno, and Ariana Saraha herself, this release is a well-crafted narrative that invites the listener on a mystic journey of transformation. Through it all, Ariana's achingly beautiful and tenderly powerful voice reveal a heart that loves this world so poignantly that even through a terrible storm she would hold a light to reveal the beauty under the cover of darkness...

"I have loved the stars too fondly to be fearful of the night." (Sarah Williams)

Come, into the mystic wild...
