HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

SONGS MY MOTHER SANG

He had a head like a big sledgehammer and a mouth like a terrible scar, but he could beat any Negro in all of Alabama playing on a steel guitar.

Make no mistake you'd have to choose him, a perfect wonder, a great musician, was Whistling Rufus, the one-man band.

Ere my heart grows too old and too coldly
To remember sad songs yet be gay,
I shall remember the hosts of the children
Magic has stolen away.
The wildflowers scattered by April,
The stars of the wide Milky Way
Cannot outnumber the hosts of the children
Magic has stolen away.

• * *

God give us men,
The times demand
Strong minds,
Firm wills
And willing hands,
Men without lust for office or possessions
And need no priestly ear to hear confessions.
Men whose sympathy for those
Less fortunate than they
Saddens their day.

Saturday, June 16, will be the last "Third Saturday" dinner and dance of this season until September. Skip Jones brings his Spirit of New Orleans energy and music with vocals and keyboard accompanied by the ever talented friend and co musician Byron Case on guitar and base. Both Skip and Byron have been the core of an ongoing blues jam for over 10 years in Eugene area and are considered veteran R & B musicians, highly regarded in music circles. Joined by Mr. Wizard veteran Stan Beecraft on drums. these musicians will put on a great show, as they did two years ago in June when they rocked the Center closing out our first "Third Saturday" series in 2010. Please join us for an evening of music and dinner. As always, our gourmet cooks will provide an amazing seasonal meal and desserts for sale starting at 6:30. Music to start at 7:30. All ages welcome to this family friendly event, sliding scale donation at the door. So, come to this beautiful setting at the Deadwood Creek Community Center, visit neighbors, meet new people, dance on our floating wood dance floor, and help us close out our successful series with these talented music makers. 4.3 miles up Deadwood Creek Rd. off HWY 36 in Deadwood. Call 541-964-5031 for more info.

There was one incident reported in May, 2012:

Middle Deadwood area, on Memorial Day, UPS package wrongly placed by new driver around 3 p.m. Package stolen, and mailbox contents scattered by 4 p.m.

To report incidences, call: Jesse 3049, or Marina 3497

Our next DNW meeting is the second Thursday, June 8, 6:30 p.m., Deadwood Community Center.

Community Safety Thought: Over holidays, people come to Deadwood to camp, visit, and hike. UPS and FED EX delivery trucks may be followed to residences where thefts can occur. Be sure to specify where packages are to be left. For example, ask package to be delivered to Deadwood Post Office if no one is home.

DEALING WITH DUST

Lane County will no longer be applying dust control to unpaved roads. SureCrop in Junction City (phone number 541-998-1121) can do this privately. The more area we do, the less the cost is per linear foot. I got a ballpark estimate of $1500 for a half mile of road. At that rate, 880 feet would be about $500 and 440 feet would be about $250. If we got more than half a mile signed up, the price would be lower per foot. If we had less, the price would be more per foot. Is anyone interested?

Other things we can do to reduce dust at no cost are:

- REDUCE SPEED: Speed reduction on gravel roads has been known to reduce up to 65% of dust emissions.
- REDUCE TRAFFIC: Reducing the number of vehicles or limiting the amount of trips in a day can also significantly reduce dust along gravel roads.

Hello -- I have questions!

Why is a person who plays the piano called a pianist, but a person who drives a racecar is not called a racist?

If 4 out of 5 people SUFFER from diarrhea...does that mean that one out of five enjoys it?

If lawyers are disbarred and clergymen defrocked, then doesn't it follow that electricians can be delighted, musicians denoted, cowboys deranged, models deposed, tree surgeons debarked, and dry cleaners depressed?

Why isn't the number 11 pronounced onety-one?

Submitted by Nadine Sprouse

If it's true that we are here to help others, then what exactly are the others here for?

What hair color do they put on the driver's licenses of bald men?

If Fed Ex and UPS were to merge, would they call it Fed UP?

What do frogs eat with their hamburgers?
French flies.

ENIAC, the first electronic computer, appeared 50 years ago. The original ENIAC was about 80 feet long, weighed 30 tons, had 17,000 tubes. By comparison, a desktop computer today can store a million times more information than an ENIAC, and 50,000 times faster.

ONLY VICTORY

In my dreams I fight and win battles once I lost.
I stand on Mary's Heights with Robert Lee
Watching Yankees soldiers flee.
In my dreams no bugles ever blow "retreat."
My dreams know triumph only, not defeat.

Lovely women gather around me
In churchyards or at a dance
Yearning for romance or even an admiring glance
Thrown their way by me.
Glory be!

I wish to publish a book of verse by local poets. In accord with that intention I seek submissions. Those I consider best shall be awarded nominal prizes of twenty, fifteen and ten dollars. Submit to P.O. box 66.

We are pleased to invite you to our annual July 4th potluck picnic. This tradition was started by the Swanson family, who homesteaded this land in the late 1800s. 1:00 potluck lunch, one of Deadwood's finest, please bring the following vittles according to your first name A-H, desserts I-P, main dishes Q-Z, salads
Please bring your own utensils and plates.
After lunch: tours of the farm for new friends or old ones who wish to see the changes

A PITHY PITCH ABOUT ENGLISH

English is considered the world's most versatile language. Certainly it is the most widely used even in China where the huge population puts its language foremost. English is now what French once was, the language of diplomats.

Rudyard Kipling once wrote: "There are nine and ninety ways of indicting tribal lays, and every blessed one of them is right."

No so, Rudy. They have to be in English.

For the purposes of this essay I shall take three classifications of American English that differs somewhat from British English, the mother tongue.

In England a truck is a lorry, a streetcar a tram, a policeman a Bobby because he wears a helmet named for its designer, Bobby Shaftoe, an early Lord Mayor of London. A woman is a Jill, so called for the girl who went up the hill with Jack and took a tumble, not to Jack but down the hill.

In the U.S.A. there are many varieties of English but the three principle ones are formal, informal and vulgate. Vulgate is not vulgar. Here the word means standard or widely used English.

In formal English one might say: I mounted to the terrain's crest to survey the surrounding vista.

In ordinary English the remark becomes: I climbed to the top of the hill better to see the scenery.

In vulgate the remark becomes: I went up to look around.

Language is similar to a musical instrument. You may use it as a fiddle or a violin, as a formal or informal mode of speech.

We children used dog Latin to tell secrets around our parents and to keep them from correcting our grammar.

What do you get from a pampered cow?
Spoiled milk.

Is someone missing a dog?

Male, middle aged, one brown eye, one blue eye. He is well mannered and is staying at our house on westforkroad. Call 3981 to claim. He is seriously missing you.

The E. Coli bacterium propels itself with a 'motor' only one-millionth of an inch in diameter, a thousand times smaller than the tiniest motors built to date by man. The rotation of the bacterial motor comes from a current of protons. The efficiency of the motor approaches 100 per cent.

I wish to make a collection of witty or wise ideas, concepts or remarks about salient features of this community that shall outlast the generation that propounded them. Here is a chance for your immortality. For the time being they might be entitled "Deadwood Doodles" or given a more dignified title at some later date.

Also I am considering prizes for the contributions to stimulate submissions, say fifty, forty and thirty dollars. If entrants submit a dollar or so with their submissions, the prizes might achieve a substantial sum. But that is yet to be decided.

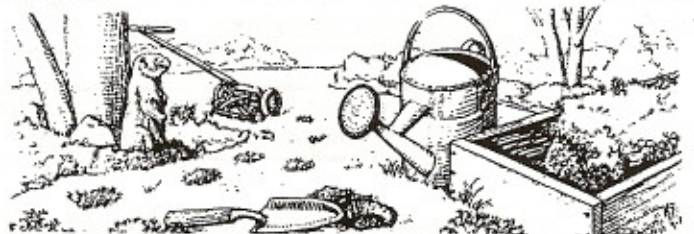

In any event, the submissions will establish a record of this generation's contribution to the community that may last as long as they may well achieve a lasting record of this generation's contribution to the lore of Deadwood for future generations to remember their forebears.

By our words they shall know us and we shall become immortal.
