As my days dwindle down to a precious few and October blends into December I prepare myself to bid a reluctant farewell to old friends and ancient foes along that road we must all travel by.

To this life we have shared together in fair or stormy weather, bright happiness or gray grief, we bid a sad but fond farewell. What is time? It's not hereafter. Present mirth has present laughter. What's to come is still unsure.

Some of us are given diamonds that we treat as baubles. I prefer to treat the baubles as diamonds. Am I wise, or do I simply lack perspective? Sages far wiser than I have asked that question, but my hearing has grown so dim I could not hear the answer.

In the ballroom of life it matters little whether you waltz or jitterbug.

Just dance.

As an American, let me tell you what it's like here. Imagine living in the same neighborhood as a major mob kingpin, a bigtime gangster. As long as he takes a liking to you or ignores you, all is well. He chases lesser thugs away and distributes some of the money he extorts from others among his neighbors. And he does keep the neighborhood safe and peaceful, to a point. But just get on his bad side, just have him think you have insulted him or cracked out of turn to the cops and you are in big trouble. Well our beloved government is quite a bit like that gangland boss. You challenge him/it at your peril. That's how we live, at least if we are doing anything involving the internet, media, computers, small businesses, or just trying to get ahead financially. You think you have a problem with our country? Try living here for a while.

I know most of you read the Deadwood Ditto in it's original paper format, however, I was recently asked to update the Deadwood Ditto webpage.

The Deadwood Ditto webpage is now current through September. I got several months behind on scanning due to frustrations with my scanner.

My scanner is so slow...how slow is it? My scanner is so slow I can drive to Florence and back between pages.

Having said that, if anyone is interested in scanning the Deadwood Ditto and forwarding it to me I will gladly post it promptly.

I will get the October Deadwood Ditto posted soon.

Live one day at a time and make it a masterpiece. Avoid negative sources, people, places and habits. Believe in yourself; Consider things from every angle: Don't give up and don't give in: Everything your looking for lies behind the mask you wear. Family and friends are hidden treasures, seek them and enjoy their riches; Give more than you planned to: Hang onto your dreams: If opportunity doesn't knock, build a door: Judge your success by what you had to give up in order to get it: Keep trying no matter how hard it seems: Love yourself; Make it happen: Never lie, steal or cheat; Open your arms to change, but don't let go of your values: Practice makes perfect: Quality not Quantity in anything you do. Remember that silence is sometimes the best answer: Stop procrastinating. Take control of your own Destiny: Understand yourself in order to better understand others: Visualize: When you lose, don't lose the lesson excellence in all your efforts: You are unique, nothing can replace you: Zero in on your target and go for it..... a to Zen of Life Dalai Lama's

Descriptions of successful projects can be found at www.artplaceamerica.org. In addition to stand-alone projects, applicants might consider identifying projects that complement recent USDA or other federal investments. "Letters of inquiry" will be accepted until November 1, 2012.

IN PRAISE OF HOOCH

I'm from Georgia where it's sometimes risky
To walk through woods where men make whisky.
Farmers grow corn on a Southern plantation
Guzzled by the gallon through the nation.

Mothers weaned babies with "white lightning" sips.
Babies wont drink milk after taking a nip.
As a pupil I went to my second grade drunk,
Or, as the saying goes, "Drunk as a skunk."

All I got from my teacher was for conduct a D,
But slightly down from my usual C.
I was never ever given for conduct an A,
Not even at church on Sunday.

But I survived and came to Deadwood
Where mental deficiencies are well understood
And treated as normal in my neighborhood.
