POEM WRITTEN TO GOD

How often at night when the heavens are bright
With light from your glittering stars,
Have I stood here amazed and asked as I gazed
If their glory exceeds that of ours?

I consider it our duty to relish the beauty
We've done nothing to be given or deserve.
Stars are immutable evidence of a divine providence
That obviously considers us Its own.

To live in this world

you must be able
to do three things:
to love what is mortal;
to hold it

against your bones knowing
your own life depends on it;
and, when the time comes to let it go,
to let it go.
